

Atrichornis 025

Across

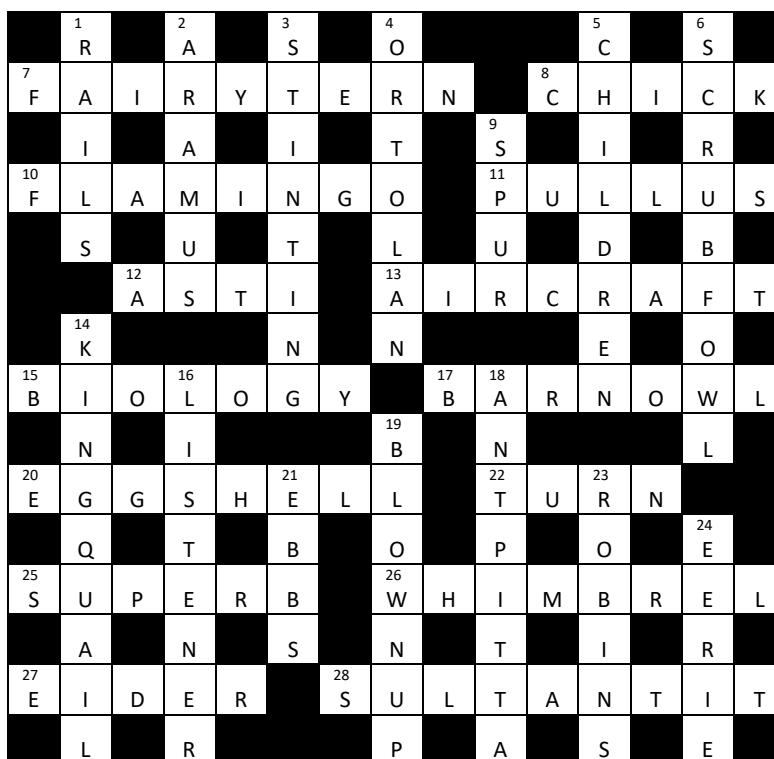

- 7 Southern seabird hones in at ferry (5,4)
 8 I'm in heartless check for a young bird (5)
 10 Bloody nothing follows this waterbird! (8)
 11 Give us a lift to find a young bird? (6)
 12 An Italian wine – just as it needs to be drunk (4)
 13 Bird trait which should interest a pilot (8)
 15 In nature studies, I blog you endlessly – it's crazy really (7)
 17 Baron travels on wheel rims to find night bird (4,3)
 20 Nested container for urges he will shortly follow (8)
 22 Go hear a seabird (4)
 25 Very good description of a lyrebird (6)
 26 A shorebird in Australia, pairs of which importantly breed elsewhere (8)
 27 A duck we get down from! (5)
 28 Asian passerine – in flight, tail stunted (cut rather short) (6,3)

Down

- 1 Liars falsely stating cryptic birds sighted (5)

- 2 Primarily a really active Mexican and US type of Limpkin (6)
 3 Ungenerous when looking for small shorebirds? (8)
 4 Bunting regrettably eaten in Porto, Languedoc, Marseilles, (7)
 5 A Malurus in winter? Preferably seen not heard, some say (8)
 6 Rainforest vocaliser is clean but with unsteady flow following (9)
 9 Finally let's keep you clear of a Rooster's main weapon (4)
 14 Quaking monarch is going first, I'll shortly follow a cryptic bird (4,5)
 16 She might have an ear for bird calls (8)
 18 Wriggling taipan ensnares non-drinking South American ground-dweller (8)
 19 Exploded into close view (5,2)
 21 Flo's vocal opposite creates good conditions for 26A (4)
 23 Disrobing, dig out fluttering birds (6)
 24 It's creepy to report a large nest (5)

Atrichornis 025

Across

- 7 Southern seabird hones in at ferry (5,4)
- 8 I'm in heartless check for a young bird (5)
- 10 Bloody nothing follows this waterbird! (8)
- 11 Give us a lift to find a young bird? (6)
- 12 An Italian wine – just as it needs to be drunk (4)
- 13 Bird trait which should interest a pilot (8)
- 15 In nature studies, I blog you endlessly – it's crazy really (7)
- 17 Baron travels on wheel rims to find night bird (4,3)
- 20 Nested container for urges he will shortly follow (8)
- 22 Go hear a seabird (4)
- 25 Very good description of a lyrebird (6)
- 26 A shorebird in Australia, pairs of which importantly breed elsewhere (8)
- 27 A duck we get down from! (5)
- 28 Asian passerine – in flight, tail stunted (cut rather short) (6,3)

Down

- 1 Liars falsely stating cryptic birds sighted (5)

- 2 Primarily a really active Mexican and US type of Limpkin (6)
- 3 Ungenerous when looking for small shorebirds? (8)
- 4 Bunting regrettably eaten in Porto, Languedoc, Marseilles, (7)
- 5 A Malurus in winter? Preferably seen not heard, some say (8)
- 6 Rainforest vocaliser is clean but with unsteady flow following (9)
- 9 Finally let's keep you clear of a Rooster's main weapon (4)
- 14 Quaking monarch is going first, I'll shortly follow a cryptic bird (4,5)
- 16 She might have an ear for bird calls (8)
- 18 Wriggling taipan ensnares non-drinking South American ground-dweller (8)
- 19 Exploded into close view (5,2)
- 21 Flo's vocal opposite creates good conditions for 26A (4)
- 23 Disrobing, dig out fluttering birds (6)
- 24 It's creepy to report a large nest (5)