

Black Thoughts (Corvids of the Hunter)

© Alan Stuart September 2012

The Aussie Raven's in my patch,
Its dying call I often hear.
It is an easy sound to catch
Although not one I hold great dear.

In our north is Torresian Crow
To around about Port Stephens.
They are expanding southwards though
(To the Aussie Raven's grievance).

They're unexciting birds, and so,
Whenever a change I'm cravin'
It's off to Harrington I go,
There to see the Forest Raven.

Little Ravens are farther west,
For example, out around Stroud.
With Little Crow we've not been blessed
And House Crows ... are not allowed!