

Bold Willie

© Alan Stuart September 2012

Bold black and white
It's my delight
To see it every day.

It flicks and flits
And chases its
Microscopic insect prey.

Its chatt'ring song
Goes on and on
In a lovely rhythmic way.

Always confides,
It never hides,
I enjoy its bold display.

Cheery wagtail
Bringing regale
Don't you ever go away.
